

Making All Things New

Would Jesus Eat Frybread?
Anchorage, AK Nov. 9-11, 2017

A conference for Native students across North America and Pasifika who want to be part of the Creator's renewal of all things.

Cost: $275
(scholarships available)

Making All Things New

Would Jesus Eat Frybread?
Anchorage, AK Nov. 9-11, 2017

A conference for Native students across North America and Pasifika who want to be part of the Creator's renewal of all things.

Cost: $275
(scholarships available)

WOULD JESUS EAT FRYBREAD?

Join us November 9-11, 2017 in Anchorage Alaska for a gathering of 100+ Native college students representing more than 50 Nations who together will explore the Creator's renewal of our world.

The Would Jesus Eat Frybread? conference (WJEF) is a gathering for Native students like you who come from across North America and Pasifika to:

- Meet other Native college students who are investigating following Jesus while honoring their peoples, cultures, and traditions.
- Learn from tribal elders as they offer their wisdom, experiences and stories.
- Learn to walk in beauty in the midst of abuse and oppression by following the Jesus way.
- Share the gifts that Creator has placed in your culture.
- Seek healing through prayer.
- Discover your place in the story of hope and restoration that Creator is writing.
- Be sent back to your campus with a full belly and a happy heart.

WJEF?

@WJEFCON

WOULD JESUS EAT FRYBREAD?

Join us November 9-11, 2017 in Anchorage Alaska for a gathering of 100+ Native college students representing more than 50 Nations who together will explore the Creator's renewal of our world.

The Would Jesus Eat Frybread? conference (WJEF) is a gathering for Native students like you who come from across North America and Pasifika to:

- Meet other Native college students who are investigating following Jesus while honoring their peoples, cultures, and traditions.
- Learn from tribal elders as they offer their wisdom, experiences and stories.
- Learn to walk in beauty in the midst of abuse and oppression by following the Jesus way.
- Share the gifts that Creator has placed in your culture.
- Seek healing through prayer.
- Discover your place in the story of hope and restoration that Creator is writing.
- Be sent back to your campus with a full belly and a happy heart.

WJEF?

@WJEFCON